Education is everybody’s business.

Make it part of yours.

Become a Newspaper in Education Sponsor

About us: Newspaper in Education (NIE) is a cooperative effort between area schools, businesses and organizations like yours, and the Times-News. The Times-News facilitates NIE, by providing teachers with print and electronic subscriptions for use in the classroom. Teachers use the newspaper to enhance classroom instruction in every subject, while sparking students’ interest in local, national and world events. Local businesses support NIE by contributing funds to cover the cost of the newspapers teachers request.

By supporting NIE, you’re supporting literacy, citizenship and life-long learning.

Add your contribution: Your business or organization can become a Times-News NIE sponsor during the 2019 -’20 school year by purchasing class sets of print or electronic newspapers teachers request for their classrooms. NIE sponsorships are tax deductible and start at only $200 per class per school year. To participate, complete the form at right.

Receive recognition: As an NIE sponsor, you’ll receive recognition in the Times-News in a thank-you ad throughout the year. You’ll also receive letters of thanks from students and teachers.

“The newspaper can be used in so many ways with critical thinking, language arts, math, science, and with government issues and elections.
